

Submitter: Dena Turner

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB547

I support making April native plant month as native plants are the basis of the web of natural life. Native plants support our insects, birds and other species, of which many are threatened by climate change, pollution, loss of habitat and invasive species.

Recognizing native plants is a good step toward awareness of the vital function that native plants serve in supporting biodiversity and the web of life which also supports human life.