What's the reasoning that Oregonians should allow estates of more than $13 millions to be exempted from taxes? To match the estate tax exemption to the federal amount makes no sense to me. I don't know the history or reasoning behind the federal exemption but there is no reason to adopt it for Oregonians. Decisions at the federal level do not always fit individual states. Middle and working class taxpayers do not have access to tax breaks that wealthier families do. Please vote no on SB 648.
