I'm totally in support of SB 769, since the ban on hunting mountain lions was passed the deer population has gone down steadily. with deer being a main food source for cougars and the cougar population continues to grow it is easy to see why the deer population is falling. Letting countries decide to use dogs to hunt cougars would allow Fish and Game management a great tool to reduce the lion population were deer winter and have fawns. Not hunting cougars with dogs is definitely not working
