

Submitter: Larry Hanson

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources and Wildfire

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: SB777

It is only morally right that livestock producers be fully compensated for wolf depredation. The wolf problem was under control until some "brilliant" citizens decided we needed more biodiversity. Livestock producers should not be required or expected to provide feed for wolves without full compensation including all costs associated with making claims and payment delays.