Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2692

HB 2692 sets up complicated and cumbersome additional requirements for agencies as they develop rules to implement legislation. Sometimes there is an urgent need for new laws. it seems like legislation moves painfully slowly at times, and then public agencies can already have difficulty with implementation. Why unnecessarily slow this down even more? Agencies already have processes to assure broad membership of rules advisory committees and are required to provide a Fiscal Impact Statement, all of which is published by the Secretary of State. Current Administrative Rules assure public engagement. The bottom line is that these additional regulations may unnecessarily delay implementation of important legislation passed by our legislature. Please vote no on HB 2692. Thank You.
