

Submitter: Ryan McCluckie

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3439

Naturopathic doctors have a special skill in treating chronic conditions that don't respond to conventional medicine. They are willing to take the time to work through conditions that many times aren't addressed by typical Western medicine approaches. Naturopathic doctors can function an essential member of a persons care team and should be a service that anyone with insurance should have access to.