

Submitter: Linda Brown

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Economic Development, Small Business, and Trade

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3329

Funding for film arts is an economic multiplier. Film work creates and a variety of jobs and supports income streams for individuals and small businesses where “shooting” takes place.

Script writing like all forms of excellent writing is necessary for jobs that support individuals and families.

The devastating fires in Southern California displaced a number of people in the film industry. Will they be moving to Oregon for housing and a job?