

Submitter: Rebecca Lexa

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB179

As a tour guide in Oregon, I am fully in support of broadening recreational immunity. Outdoor activities all have inherent risks, and landowners and other stakeholders should not be held liable when someone willingly takes these risks. Our trail system is one of the best in the country, if not the world, and the closing of trails due to fear of lawsuits will do no one any good.