Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2967

I support HB 2967 wholeheartedly as a landlord myself. Without this in place, it is basically legal for landlords to scam countless people in a community who are just looking for a home. Other landlords often feel entitled to take people's money, even when they secretly have no intention of renting to them. It is far too easy to take advantage of people and rake in some extra cash. It's dishonest and should be illegal.
