

Submitter: Bill Bold

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB2656

By definition net metering is designed to cover the power you are consuming on site. If you want to generate power for sale to the public you currently need to register as a utility and act like one. I believe that should stay that way.