

Submitter: Constance Lang

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2682

Early intervention is critical to helping our special education students achieve their highest potential. Investment in early intervention can save money over time and provides students the services that they need WHEN they need them, not when it is too late to make an impact.