

Submitter: Victoria Davis

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3042

As written this bill has vague definitions that threaten medical freedom. Given the political polarization in today's society, we need to ensure there are clear definitions for ethics and that any punishments are tied to patient harm only. Bills like this are dangerous and biased and cause more harm than the ills they are written to prevent.