Chair Neron, Vice-Chair Dobson, Vice-Chair McIntire, and Members of the Committee,

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to making sure every child gets the education and support they deserve in Oregon.

As a parent of two kids who will attend Silver Rail Elementary in Bend, I am writing to you today to advocate for the passage of HB 2953 and legislation that fully funds special education services. I am also with the Sacred Organizing Coalition, whose organizations and initiatives share a commitment to organizing the hundreds of community-based teams we work with - and the thousands of everyday Oregonians that are part of these local groups - to move us toward an Oregon where all belong.

I am a Behavioral Health Consultant at St. Charles Family Care. I have worked with various kids over the years who greatly benefit from ways to support their various needs as students, whether they be on the spectrum, have ADHD, are learning English, or have chaos at home that impacts their ability to emotionally regulate and learn. Kids need all kinds of support to better learn, and not all of it can come from the teacher alone.

I believe that every student in Oregon deserves the support they need. I believe that teachers and staff should be equipped with the resources necessary for every child to succeed.

But because of an outdated funding formula designed over 30 years ago, Oregon is currently leaving out over 19,000 students or almost 1/4th of the 80,000 students in its funding. That's even though the need has drastically increased for special education services, with diagnoses for those with autism or anxiety and children with other needs continuing to rise.

Doing nothing means young people not getting basic support for their needs. It means more teachers and staff burnout from not having enough resourcing. Underfunded mandates mean local schools having to choose cuts in various programs. Doing nothing affects all of us.

We cannot just let an old law from the 1990s dictate whose children get to belong in Oregon schools. As a community member who knows the importance of supporting our children in my community, all of our children belong here. Our funding should reflect this truth.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration,

Sarah Guest, LCSW, Behavioral Health Consultant
