

Submitter: Lauren Peck

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3042

The language of this measure is too vague and opens the door for witch-hunting Naturopathic doctors and practitioners. While well-intentioned, this measure needs some serious rewriting to narrow down the language so that well educated and trained naturopathic doctors are protected from harmful legislation being used against them.