Oregon's business costs are already among the highest in the nation. Forcing employers to pay UI taxes on workers who are ineligible for benefits is fundamentally unfair and adds an unnecessary financial burden on businesses.

Please support SB 622 , exempt Oregon H-2A employers from paying unemployment insurance (UI) taxes for workers who cannot collect unemployment benefits. This bill would bring Oregon's UI administration in line with federal law (IRS) and states like New York and Washington, which recognize that H-2A workers are exempt from FUTA and employers should not be unfairly taxed.
