And I'm sorry I forgot something I'd like to mention that the people that he wanted to violate their property ownership rights Fourth Amendment rights was all on video camera where he was specifically trespassed from certain locations by the property owner themselves restricted to what my probation requirements are and then required me to come in later that afternoon where he said Not only would I not be able to go to work which is under the contracts clause because it's an employment contract of course it's under the contracts clause, but that I would need to move for my residence within 30 days which ends on the 20th of this month so in his eyes I have 3 days to move out or I'm going to have to be living in jail because that's better than me having my own rental area agreement.

The person that he wanted to violate was the property owner and a US military veteran of the US Army.

His intent was to go into a US army veterans locations look for a firearm and seize it blaming constructive possession on me which I have a non violent felony eluding conviction from 2020.
