

Submitter: Aaron Hardwick

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB2738

The continued use of leaded fuel needs to come to an end for the betterment of the local citizens and for the wildlife that we all cherish.

If you look at homicide statistics, there is a very very clear decline about when we banned leaded gas.