

Submitter: Linus Ruckman

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Economic Development, Small
Business, and Trade

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3140

This bill will likely increase the financial boundaries between individuals and their ecosystem. I am strongly opposed to any legislation that creates further pay-walls between humans and their natural environment. It is important to me that all people have the accessibility to connect with nature through both recreation and restoration.