

I support this bill. Having worked through Covid I see the benefit of continuing to work with clients who needed (need) to reside out of state. College students and graduates who are struggling and benefiting from clinical work should not have to locate and establish a new clinical relationship When their residency changes. - not to mention the shortage of therapists.