

Submitter: Ralph Newton

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2774

"The welfare of the people in particular has always been the alibi of tyrants, and it provides the further benefit of lending the servants of tyranny a good conscience" A. Camus. Will just leave it there, there's no sense in attempting reason where reason, supplanted by agendas, does not hold place.