

Submitter: Kristina Primbs-Wetter

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3018

Increasing food waste composting would really help Oregon by reducing landfills, building healthy soil, preventing runoff, improving water quality, providing more food for people, helping during droughts, improving air quality, conserving water, helping our environment, increasing crop yields, reducing need for buying fertilizers.