I am writing in favor of House Resolution 3. It is important to recognize Oregon state history and the contributions of Oregonians to the state's development and existence, and Black drag history is a beautiful part of that history to celebrate. It is important to celebrate history in an intersectional way and understand that social and cultural history is an integral part of Oregon's state history, and connects directly to Oregon's political history, and this resolution recognizes the vital contributions of Black LGBTQ+ individuals in Oregon and their larger contributions to the US.
