

Submitter: Dale Palmer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB2738

I think there are few reasons to continue using this legacy fuel. I understand some of the mechanical and physical benefits in cars for using this fuel but we have plenty of alternatives. There's no legitimate reason to put so many people at risk for more automobile performance.