

Submitter:

Kari Ott

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SCR13

The State of Oregon has many different official emblems that are recognized as an important part of Oregon's heritage and economy. Cattle ranching has been in Oregon for over 200 years and is spread throughout the entire state. Making an official steak would be a great way to recognize an industry that is such a vital part of Oregon's sustainable land management and economy.