Thank GOD for Self Enhancement and other agencies that are supporting affordable housing in this area. Too often the less fortunate are victims of a society that doesn't care about them at all. Some folks are placed in situations where they are misunderstood or are from a different culture and property owners don't want them in their properties at all and at the sign of any little incident, they're ready to give them the boot. Give them a chance to cure the situation before they're evicted.
