

Submitter: Kim Kelly

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB726

Monitoring methane leaks must be done for the safety of every living being. Since we as citizens cannot seem to limit our trash and landfills make money to 'bury' it, then the methane needs to be monitored.

But who will pay for it? Possibly raise the trash collection fee?