

Submitter: Gary Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3336

Increased capacity in Oregon's electric transmission system is critical to the state's economy and to the well-being of its citizens. Relatively quick and cost-effective Grid Enhancement Technologies are smart approaches while long-term solutions emerge. I support HB 3336 because it will lead our utility companies toward higher utilization of these technologies.