

Submitter: Gary Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3628

Oregon must act to head off a serious shortfall in electric-transmission capacity. The Oregon Electric Transmission Authority can accelerate the expansion of transmission capacity by issuing bonds and by overseeing all aspects of the complex work of developing new infrastructure. I support the comprehensive approach created with this bill.