My name is Greg Delgado I live in Bend Oregon I have been a community activist for many years I love my community and city but I have yet to be in a place to call home .During covid my home for 9 years was turned into an Air B&B and i was evicted I fought the eviction ,won but wound up houseless I am 60 years old and I work for a nonprofit and to this day I struggle with stable housing .Currently I am house sitting for a few months and trying to find a home .Last June I had an injury and that resulted in being unemployed for three months and that led to an eviction I was able to borrow from a friend to avoid the eviction so now i am trying to find a home that wont tsake half my income and I can afford when things get rough . Every time I move I must pay thousands to move and now my things are in storage waiting for my next home ,I love Bend I love the people here I love the life I have here but I cant find a place to call home .
