Please don't do this to us! I am a single mom trying to raise a daughter. We love our Oregonian neighbors, regardless of skin color. Neither of us were alive during the time when this country was horrifically treating people of African-American descent, the way they were. I grew up as a military kid the first decade of my life I was around Mexican Americans, African-Americans, and even spent time overseas. I'm struggling as it is to raise my family on my own. Please don't force me to pay more taxes for something that I would never have been involved in.

Thank you
Sarah
