

Submitter: Brooke Crouch

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB3336

I support this bill because it would make electricity transmission lines more efficient and more sensitive to problems that could cause fires. This is especially important in our current era of climate catastrophe where devastating wildfires are becoming more and more frequent and deadly.