I am a tax professional, I deal with people and their finances. I see the echoing results of the historic economic harm done to African Americans from the founding of this nation on stolen lands, with stolen labor, through Jim Crow, red lining, and many other forms of institutional racism. When I first got a glimpse of an email about this bill I thought it was to actually implement reparations, and thought, it's about time. This bill is for a study, surely this is a slam dunk, any no vote would be cowardly at best.

Thank you
