Management, Federal and World Affairs

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB667

I am writing this in support of SB667.

The federal government needs to follow our U.S. Constitution. State legislators have an essential, civic obligation to their constituents to demand that the federal government adhere to congressional wars powers as mandated by Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution. Without an official declaration of war by the U.S. Congress, states have a duty to withhold their troops from active combat.

Thank you.
