How far back are you going for the reparations. And with your idiot DEI policies you do know that in five years you'll be sued for reparations by white males. The problem with racism is you can't see it through your hood. This 2025, it's time to quit whining, grow up and work hard. If you keep giving a hand out instead of a hand up they'll always be on their knees. I guess that's where the democrats want them.
