

Submitter: Frank Mansfield

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Emergency Management, General Government, and Veterans

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2995

The people of Oregon alive today do not owe anything to those of African-American descent. I experienced reverse discrimination throughout my life, but the people of the state don't owe me anything. The individuals who did discriminate in the past are not alive today to paid so called reparations, or a better description is buying votes at the tax payer expense. Also, how do you separate descendants of implied discrimination and those who weren't discriminated against.