

Submitter: Andrew Simrin

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB88

Many gas and electric companies operate as monopolies where they operate, and therefore have a lot of "power". The ratepayers should not have to pay for many of the activities that are not core to providing reliable, affordable, clean, and renewable energy to ratepayers.