

2152- This as an important and large undertaking that, in my opinion, should have been started years ago. (But better now than never.) As a licensed Civil Engineer and Project Manager, it is critical to have a plan going forward with Specific, Actionable, Measurable with Schedule driven results. Breaking down something this large into manageable pieces is critical for its success. Plus the plan will help with the communication of needs and implementation to Oregonians.