At first I was neutral, till I read all those that supported HB 3012, is this a school project for students? As I thought more, I realized that the students way get influenced by peer pressure or worst Teachers.

When I was 16, it was cruising the strip with friends, I had no interest in the political narrative, that was left for adults who were old people. Making decisions other than what to have for lunch or which social friends I had were the biggest decisions I made, It was till my last few month of school it finely dawned upon me the real world awaited me and I was not prepared. My first decision was made when I was almost 18 and I joined the Army to get direction and discipline.

I oppose HB 3012 as 16 and 17 are not mature enough, I did not vote till I was 21, lets keep the voting age at 18!
