

Please don't water down forest protections. This is public trust land not just for this generation. Although quick bucks are always a temptation think about future generations (as well as voter backlash).

JJ