

Submitter: John Kendall

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3362

I oppose the excise tax on tires. The persons who will be most harmed are low and middle income earners. As a retiree who will need to purchase tires in the near future, this amounts to a government-imposed inflation of 4% on top of the already prohibitive inflation to which we are subjected.