If Oregon admin. would spend as much time managing the funds they have as they do trying to rise the taxes, The state of Oregon would be better off. As a retired state employee I have watched the accountability go to zero in the last 15 years and the waste of the tax payers money, WOW of course you want more money, how easy is that, do nothing and throw money at it. Life is good.

Maybe we can invite DOGE when they get caught up. Something needs to change in Oregon. do you think the employees can write 5 things that they did this week with out being confused and dumb founded

Everybody I know is talking the same. keep doing the same same, it will come like a wave. look around

NO NEW TAXES
