Please allow 16-year-olds the opportunity to be engaged and feel their civic power. This is a great way for them to develop good voting habits (as it is, too few Americans vote consistently; we should be doing everything possible to increase voting participation.) Sixteen year olds have the brain power to make good voting decisions and they WANT to vote. Many are already involved in social/political movements and are frustrated that politicians ignore them because they can't vote. Yes to more voters!
