

Submitter: Candy Mitchell

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or
Topic: HB2679

Neonics are dangerous to our native insects. We have already lost huge populations due to these harmful chemicals. These are our pollinators, and so much more in the intricate web of our habitat. We need our pollinators and other animals do too.