

Freedom to Read Bill (SB 1098). March 2025. Oregon legislature.

My letter to submit for testimony for the 3/3 hearing:

The gift of reading is universal. The fear of those who read also seems to know no boundaries. I volunteer for the Ledding Library in Milwaukie, Oregon because I value libraries as a vital resource for our community. I wish to add my voice to those who support Freedom to Read. For the sake of knowledge, for the sake of reasonable public discourse, and for the sake of feeding our imaginations, I recommend that the Freedom to Read Bill (SB 1098) will move forward and pass into Oregon law. Thank you.
