

Submitter: Andrew Simrin

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Judiciary

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB993

Once photos are out in the public, they can be difficult to redact. There are several local social media groups and local newsletters featuring booking photos of innocent people. Booking photos contain biological markers, further identifies and exposes peoples information to potential data brokers and other private investigators when the booked suspect is allegedly innocent.