

Submitter: John Nettleton

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Energy and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB88

Utilities are profiting from rate increases that do nothing to support supplying the energy we all need. It is unfair for a for-profit, corporate utility to charge customers for their lobbyists, lawyers, advertising, and membership fees to big industry associations that do nothing for the people they are supposedly serving.