

Submitter: Brent Ahrend

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3362

I oppose a general tax on tires if the funds will not be used exclusively for highway maintenance such as repaving and pothole repairs. I would support a tax on studded tires to fund repaving of highways damaged by studded tires. With ODOT having a shortfall already and other taxes likely to increase, we should not be setting up an entirely new account.