TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I oppose Bill SB 1003 which would provide legality to manipulating and convincing someone who is struggling emotionally, mentally, physically or any other way to commit suicide. To me, assisting others to murder themselves is no different than being an accomplice in a crime. And if that person is under legal age, it's no different than any other harm done to an underage person. The blood is on the hands of the accomplice because they have assisted. And to manipulate someone who is struggling emotionally, mentally, physically or any other way is beyond criminal -- it's wicked and unconscionable. Thank you for the opportunity to state my concern.
