

Submitter: Elaine Lavington

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1098

Schools and parents should be able to decide if some books should not be in their school libraries. Not all books are suitable for all ages. Parents should be able to decide that they do not want their children to read about sexuality, transgender topics or homosexuality.

Please oppose SB 1098.