

Submitter: Chris Pritchard

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3362

In rural areas, where longer travel distances and rougher roads already cause frequent tire replacements, this tax would only add to the financial strain on families and businesses. At a time when Oregonians are already dealing with rising costs, imposing an unnecessary tax on a basic necessity like tires is the wrong move.